For mobile devices or if you do not have a compatible PDF reader, use the online version of this document.

Note: This content is only compatible with Adobe Reader DC, Adobe Acrobat DC and PDF-XChange; other PDF readers are not supported.

First time users should also see the additional steps noted below.

First time users and troubleshooting

Disable Adobe global object security policy

This is often required for first-time users. To do this, open Adobe, click Edit > Preferences > JavaScript, uncheck the field Enable global object security policy, click OK.

Click 'Allow' on all communication prompts

This is required for authentication and is often only required for first-time users. If you accidentally clicked Do Not Allow or blocked the communication, see the next tip below:

Add the domain protectedpdf.com to your trusted sites

To do this, open Adobe, click Edit > Preferences > Trust Manager, click Change Settings, add host <https://protectedpdf.com> and click Allow.

For additional assistance, contact NFRC Helpdesk.

If you receive a 'w29' error it may be because this version of the document has been withdrawn and replaced by an updated version—please check with NFRC Helpdesk. You can download the latest version from the member's area of the NFRC website if you are a current member of NFRC.
